Executive Director Search Voyageurs Lutheran Ministry

OPPORTUNITY

VLM provides year-round Christian outdoor programs, including camps, retreats and events, outdoor education, and facility rentals. From the iron range to the boundary waters, the two sites offer life-changing experiences for visitors of all ages.

Together, we work toward our mission of providing opportunities for Christ-centered spiritual growth, leadership development, and outreach in God's great Northwoods.

Building on the organization's rich history, The Candidate will be a visionary driver, thought leader, and advocate in promoting the importance of outdoor ministry and building relationships with the region's communities.

The Candidate will be able to shape the narrative and lead this historic organization into a new day of service, creating a transformative, sustainable impact in the lives of children and families.

ORGANIZATION BACKGROUND

Voyageurs Lutheran Ministry invites you to experience an exceptional community at two unique sites. Camp Hiawatha and Camp Vermilion offer traditional summer camp experiences, programmed day or weekend events, and comfortable spaces for your next retreat or family/friend gathering. Are you looking for more adventure? We also offer guided trips into the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness. We provide the ideal combination of place and program for Christian community and personal renewal.

Since the late 1950s, the Christ-centered programs of Camp Hiawatha and Camp Vermilion have welcomed people from all over. VLM is affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and shares God's abundant grace with all people.

When the two camps merged to form Voyageurs Lutheran Ministry in 1990, it strengthened the churches and communities of Northeast Minnesota by providing one mission at two wonderfully different places for Outdoor Ministry. Over the decades, both camps have developed deep roots in the local communities and become hospitality centers. Today, the sites, owned by more than 80 congregations, offer time and space where kids can explore faith outdoors, and all people are welcomed as neighbors.

Camp Hiawatha and Camp Vermilion are situated on some of the best lakeshore in the country. VLM seeks to educate ourselves and our community to sustain these lands. We are called to be caretakers of Creation and know that we are part of the continued work by the Anishinaabe people, the families who invited others to the camps in the early days, and the churches that support them now. VLM is actively researching both the celebrated and the tortured history of these lands and peoples with hopes of better understanding our shared history and moving forward together.
